Sopot:

Sopot is one of the most popular and more exclusive seaside resorts in Poland. Sopot is located in between Gdańsk and Gdynia, in what's known as the TriCity. Its white sandy beaches have attracted beach tourists ever since the early 19th century. The town has a wide variety of gastronomy, accommodation and nightlife, and has an extensive cultural agenda for all ages. Sopot offers an unforgettable atmosphere as it's located between forested hills and the sea. It has the longest wooden pier in Europe which stretches more than 500 m into the sea, the Monte Cassino Promenade, Aqua Park, tennis courts, a horse race track, a casino and an annual song festival in the Forest Opera. It is famous for its nightlife, especially in summer when the bars and clubs along the beach and ul. Bohaterów Monte Cassino are packed with tourists and locals.

Gdańsk Lech Wałęsa Airport:

The airport, Port Lotniczy Gdańsk im. Lecha Wałęsy (aka Gdańsk Lech Wałęsa Airport), is about 15 km south-west of Sopot centre in the Rębiechowo district. The modern terminal handles both arrivals and departures.

After landing you enter the terminal building from the baggage hall where you'll find a Gdańsk Tourist Organisation information point in front of you, car rental desks and ATM machines. A train service connects the airport with the three cities of Gdańsk, Sopot and Gdynia although a change at Gdańsk-Wrzeszcz may be required. You can reach the platforms, where you will find ticket machines, by taking the escalator to the left as you leave the baggage hall. For more information see the PKM section of our Getting Around chapter and check train times at rozkład-pkp.pl/en. Neptun Taxi is the official taxi firm and can be trusted. Be suspicious if offered a lift by any car not bearing a taxi logo with a telephone number on it. If you want to catch a bus (210 to Gdańsk, 122 to Sopot and 4A to Gdynia) you will find the bus stops directly across the road as you leave the terminal.

Getting to Sopot:

You can take the train to Sopot but you will need to change at Gdańsk-Wrzeszcz. From Gdańsk-Wrzeszcz, you'll need to change platform and take the yellow and blue local commuter train (SKM) northbound in the direction of Gdynia. Sopot is the sixth stop from Gdańsk-Wrzeszcz. The most direct way to reach Sopot is by taking a taxi from outside the airport terminal building which will cost you around PLN 80-90, but more at night and on Sundays.

Jarmark Dominikański - St. Dominic's Fair:

Gdańsk's St. Dominic's Fair is the largest open-air trade and cultural event in Poland and one of the largest such events in Europe. It has enjoyed over 750 years of tradition. It was established by Pope Alexander IV in 1260. The contemporary form of St Dominic's Fair recalls the medieval tradition of fun and trade such as a market square, shows by masters of artistic metalwork or bread day. More than 1,000 traders, artists and collectors participate in the Fair with their stands several streets in the historical city centre. It has a unique atmosphere and climate. It has a wide range of stalls full of antiques, works of art, regional products, silvers, chandeliers, samovars, coins, and lots more. In the artist's section there are handmade toys, pottery, amber, silver, glass, felt and leather jewellery. During its three weeks a lot of cultural events and concerts take place as well.
